New England Mini Extravaganza – Collectibility Edition!

A Mini Collectibility show focusing mainly on Breyer & Stone Small Scales

August 24th, 2025 – Pakachoag Center, 203 Pakachoag St, Auburn MA 01501

Amanda Reed, Hostess

Doors open at 8 AM, show begins at 9 AM

5 Divisions: Breyer G1 & Stablemate Rarities, Breyer G2 SM, MW/LB/Breakables/Other, Breyer G3-Modern SM, and Stone

ENTRY FEE: $40

JUDGES: Robin Roberts (Stone), Breyer division judges TBA

NEME is a participant in the Region X Tag Manager and you must be registered with a shower number to participate.

TRXC Qualification will be offered to eligible classes. NAN qualification may be pursued IF there is enough interest and attendance to support this cost.

AWARDS: Classes will be placed 1st-10th using leftover business card flats from my previous show Scratch & Dent Live. Sectional & Overall awards TBD but will likely include recycled rosettes and Stable Snaps.

Please follow the Guidelines and refer to the reference spreadsheet provided to determine which class your model belongs in. Classes may be split or combined at judge/hostess discretion.

All OF Breyer Stablemates, Mini Whinnies, Little Bits/Paddock Pals, and OF Peter Stone Chips & Pebbles are welcome to participate. There are also a few misc. classes including opportunities for Breyer Breakables in LB or smaller scale. I cannot offer Breed classes with this edition, but I do have enough flats from S&D that I may consider a Breed edition of NEME in the future!

LIMITS: 3 entries per class, and up to 3 buy-ins at $1 each

TABLES: This hall does have a few tables beyond what we need for rings, raffles, awards, etc. but we cannot offer table space to everyone. As this is a mini show, hopefully it will be easier to source a table that fits your needs! If you cannot bring your own, please consider sharing a larger table with a friend.

SPACE: This show ideally needs a minimum number of 15 people in order to cover the cost of the hall space and payment to judges, at the cost outlined per person. Since this is a mini show, there's plenty of room! If we have room closer to the show (say by mid-August) I am happy to open space up to folks who wish to attend just for sales and pay a nominal fee for the spot. Entry cap is set at 34 but if I end up hitting this mark there may be some flexibility since it's just minis.

DRAWING: There will as always be a fun Drawing (raffle), please consider bringing model or horse-related items to donate! (Note that my novice show will be the day before, so any items geared towards that audience would be best given to me ahead of show weekend.)

REFUNDS: In the event that you need to cancel after you've paid, please let me know as soon as possible. Refunds will be offered in full up until the entry deadline (Sunday, August 17th). Between the entry deadline and the show date, refunds will subtract $10- just as any late entries are charged $10. If you do not show up on the show date, make no effort to contact me during the show, and I have not heard from you by the following Monday, no refund will be issued.

IMPORTANT – Emergency Clause. In the event of ANY circumstance outside of my control that requires me to cancel the show, ALL entry fees will be returned MINUS $10 to help cover the deposit paid for the hall as I would most likely not get that back. Please sign on the provided line on the entry form to acknowledge this clause. I will most likely not need this but with any uncertainty in life it is good to be prepared just in case. Thank you for understanding!

LUNCH: For my shows, we put together a group order from a local restaurant (usually Family Table). We'll need your orders with detail by late morning. Please visit the front table to add your order to the sheet! If you do not want to participate in the group order, you are welcome to bring your own lunch. There is a fridge and microwave in the kitchen we are welcome to use as long as any spills are cleaned up. We are also very close to Rt. 20 and there are a number of places nearby to grab food if you have someone to send out to pick up. I'm unsure how much of a break we'll end up having, but it will at least be long enough for the judges to eat and rest.

INTERNET & CHARGING ACCESS: There is free wifi available at this location, and a number of outlets around the room.

GUIDELINES – Important! Please read

BREYER Notes:

- 1. Models which were available for more than one year have been assigned classes by their original release year
- 2. Those which appeared in more than one release are to follow the assignment of the original release unless there is definitive identification proving the model to be from a certain edition or source (for example, presence or lack of VIN on some models which have appeared both as RR and via Tractor Supply).
- 3. ALL Stablemate rarities are to show in the Rarities section EXCEPT for Vintage SR & Chalkies/Pearlies which have their own classes in the G1 Vintage section (this is fine because they are still within the same Division). Modern runs with stated counts of 500 or fewer MUST go in the Rarities section.
- 4. Please enter any Exclusive Event Unpainted/Swirl Plastic SM in the Unfinished/Culls classes in the Rarities section
- 5. All RR G1 made prior to the ABS change in the early 90's should go in the Vintage section
- 6. Models may be shown in any class next to their original packaging, except for the NIP classes where the models would still be sealed on the cards. Ephemera & accessories if you have them are welcome, please just be courteous of other entrants when taking up space
- 7. G1 Sears & JCP I have included a class specifically for the set of models that was available from both sources to avoid any confusion, everything else is separated
- 8. The "Other Breyer Collectible" is meant for items like the Snowglobes and anything that doesn't really fit in elsewhere (like Hands Down!) I did put the Cantering Palomino Play Mat model here, but I am willing to hear pitches for placing it in another spot...
- 9. "G4" includes all of the molds introduced in 2010, plus Indigo, Rivet, and Dungaree introduced in 2013. The Chrome Andalusian is a completely different sculpt style and is (to an extent) a mini version of the Breeds of the World Resin, so he fits better with the Modern category.
- 10. "Modern" molds encompass Chrome and all molds introduced after 2013. I managed to avoid breaking most of the classes out this way, but if needed for splits "Adapted" modern molds are any which also appear in another scale and/or another material in the Breyer lineup, and "New Sculpts" are modern molds which do NOT have another version somewhere else for Breyer.
- 11. The G2, G3/G4, and Modern RR Sections include classes for Common Unpainted models those which can be obtained via commercially available paint/activity kits and models in primer provided at Breyer events such as Fun Days or BreyerFest for the Stablemate Painting activity
- 12. "Paddock Pals" refer to the SCALE that is also known as Little Bits (1:24 scale) and does NOT include the newer toy molds Breyer is marketing as "Paddock Pals" sold through stores like Dollar General & Five Below. Those are Classic/Freedom scale.
- 13. LB/PP which received re-issues from Target/Kmart in 2006-2008 may show in the SR class ONLY if they are significantly different from their original in paint style/technique
- 14. Please note the following for the Mini Whinnies Division:
 - a. All models that have been a SR at least once, except if the only SR was a Target Re-issue, belong in the SR classes
 - b. SR are broken into one class for Other SR & All Chase Pieces, and one for Non-Chase Blind Bags. Tests if desired to enter should go in the former
 - c. The RR ended up being split out further than I anticipated! First, any model that appeared in multiple RR series (and/or has a Target Re-issue) will go in the Multi-Sets class
 - d. All of the other RR classes are for models that have only had one release. Make note of if your model came from a Playset, a Set of Horses, an Advent Calendar, or Blind Bags. Blind Bags are split into Old (Creata) and New (minis of other Breyer molds

e. Note that while I did my best to correctly ID and place every MW I could into a class, there may be some room for error/interpretation as some runs may be more or less alike than they look on the reference sites. If you have questions please reach out!

STONE Notes:

- 1. Judging criteria will include Collectibility for all models, plus Workmanship elements, particularly for the FCM sections. Age may be less of a factor here, but condition/desirability/rarity will still be considered and when that comes to Stone, it's not always just about run size!
- 2. This division is open to both Chips and Pebbles scales, so if splits are needed, scale will be one of the primary factors when possible
- 3. Documentation is important for all classes, but it is ESPECIALLY important for Stone. If you do not have access to the Stone Reference site, many folks are happy to send you a screenshot or the details in text about a model if it is in the database. DAC/P may be documented by including information about the color (particularly if it's a limited edition) and body style, and year created if known (early pieces are not always marked). Even if you run into dead ends looking for model info, anything you do know about it is perfectly fine (such as where/when you acquired it or any info from a previous owner).
- 4. Any customization, no matter how small, puts a model in a FCM class/section
- 5. The Realistic colors are split by run size, while Unrealistic and Fantasy are by color/type of fantasy. Realistic classes may be adjusted in the future if there is a better way to group them. DAC are all within their own section.
- 6. The last Fantasy class may or may not award qualifying cards depending on if the models entered meet the acceptable criteria. Please do bring out those extreme customs even if they may not be fit to earn qualification it is really cool to see these pieces of art!
- 7. The Glitter/Interference class is meant to cover all models who are mostly realistic except for a topcoat of glitter, interference, or blacklight paint (anything really that "disguises" the model from being a deco in some light conditions)
- 8. Unrealistic Pattern means the model's base color is realistic for a horse, but the markings/pattern do not reflect the possibilities of real life (heart shape appaloosa spots for example)
- 9. If you aren't sure which class your model should go in, please ask! Stone being so much more expansive than Breyer means it would be a major challenge to create lists in the spreadsheet for each class like I've done with Breyer

GENERAL Notes:

- 1. I am thinking about getting some more table risers for the rings so this may become less necessary, but clear or other unobstructive risers for individual models are welcome so long as they don't cause an issue for other entries
- 2. Mirrors underneath models are welcome if there is anything notable to see on the underside, as well as lighting for models that feature blacklight paint etc.
- 3. While I have tried to make the Breyer reference lists on the spreadsheet as comprehensive as possible, this list may not be exhaustive and please do let me know if there's anyone you cannot find. My goal was to design this classlist around what is available and to give plenty of models time to shine!
- 4. No running in the hall (unless there is an emergency of course), and PLEASE be mindful of your physical location at all times in order to avoid bumping tables. Little ears and legs break so easily!
- 5. The show hostess, staff, and venue staff are not to be held responsible for any property damage, theft, or injuries that occur on the premises. This is a small show and while we do not expect any issues, please be vigilant and aware.

- 6. Placing a model on its side on the show table gives the judge permission to carefully pick it up to inspect the other side
- 7. Please remember that every judge will have their own justifications for placing classes and do ask if you'd like to understand why a class was placed the way it was. If you find yourself being concerned about a judge's behavior for any reason, please come speak to ME privately AT the show and I will evaluate any concerns on a case by case basis. If you do not feel comfortable speaking to me at the show, please email/message me privately ASAP after the show ends. There will be no tolerance for slander of the show or my judges afterwards if you haven't taken the time to talk it out with me.
- 8. Music may not be playing loudly at any time it can be difficult to hear others in this space and we want to avoid making that harder.
- 9. Related to this, if someone is making an announcement, PLEASE pause your conversations ASAP so those around you have a better chance to hear what's being said over the loudspeaker or being shouted. We'll do our best to check in with anyone who is having a hard time hearing periodically during the day and if this is you, please know that it is ok to ask us to repeat or clarify!
- 10. Award recycling is welcome if you are so inclined! Being someone who keeps all of mine, I don't judge if you choose to, but if you aren't going to keep them please do recycle back to us rather than tossing them when you get home. As long as they aren't written on we can re-use them!
- 11. There is a playground within easy walking distance if you are traveling with kids who need to get their energy out, and you have another adult to take them over to it. Every child under the age of 13 must be accompanied by a responsible adult at all times in the show hall.
- 12. The Classlist Guidelines not only lists many of the models that are eligible to compete in most classes, but it is color coded correlated with the tablecloth colors that will be used in each set of rings.
- 13. Finally, and most importantly I expect everyone in attendance to have respect for everyone else me, my staff, my judges, your fellow entrants, their companions, and any hall staff who stop by to check in. In the event of any discomfort or conflict, please let me know ASAP and we can discuss privately. I will do my best to understand the situation from all perspectives prior to offering resolution. Let me be clear that my primary objective is to ensure that everyone feels comfortable and safe at my events and I take this seriously. Thank you folks!
